(a) whether it is a fact that Government propose to rope in private sector for setting up airports, if so, the details of the joint venture project;

(b) whether Government have already listed architect firms for the design of new projects; and

(c) whether this poses any kind of security risk?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI RAJIV PRATAP RUDY): (a) Yes, Sir. An airport with equity participation from State Government of Kerala, Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs), financial institutions and Non-Resident Indians has been set up at Nedumbassery near Cochin. Airports with private sector participation are being established at Shamshabad near Hyderabad (Andhra Pradesh) and Devanahalli near Bangalore (Karnataka).The two airport projects, have been promoted by the respective State Governments on a joint venture basis with Private Sector Participation. The construction of a new airport in MORA in Goa has also been approved to be undertaken by the State Government with private sector participation.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) No, Sir, the provision of CNS/ATM services and airport security will continue to remain vested with Airports Authority of India (AAI). In the event of airports having international operations, regulatory functions such as immigration, customs, public health and plant/animal quarantine, would continue to be exercised by Government Regulatory Agencies.
